

October 2015

Character Trait of the month:
Responsibility

1st Grade Newsletter

This month we will be learning about:

Home Project:

This month's project will focus on community workers. Have your child create a poster on 8.5x11 piece of paper in which they select 3 community workers from their community and write 2-3 sentences for each one. Include: where you can find them and the service they provide. Projects will be presented in language of choice.

Due Date:

Thursday Oct. 30, 2015

Language Arts

(Spanish): Reading: This month we will be working on our unit on families, different communities, and mapping skills. We will be discussing the different ways in which we use maps in everyday life. Writing: We will be applying our knowledge on how to develop an informative paragraph. We will be writing about members from family and our community.

Math (Spanish): For this month, we will continue to work on Engage Math Curriculum Module 1 (sums and difference to 10). Students will be learning a variety of strategies to solve addition and subtraction facts and word problems.

Science (English) We will be learning about different animals and their characteristics. We will also focus on their adaptations and diverse habitats in which they live in.
